From Fr. Stephen:

Our mass for All Saints' Mass will be Saturday, November 1st at 9 a.m. It is not a holy day of obligation in 2025. Many of you may remember in September 2024 when the Holy See's Dicastery for Divine Worship responded to a 'dubia' [a doubt] from several US bishops about holy days of obligation that fall on Saturdays or Mondays; the response gave the impression that even on those days, attending mass is obligatory. This past spring, however, the Holy See clarified that, apart from Christmas, this only applies to a country's patronal feast day, which for us in the U.S. is December 8th. Other holy days that fall on a Saturday or Monday--like November 1st this year--remain solemnities but are not holy days of obligation.

Special 2nd collection on Nov 1st/2nd for Conway Co. Care Center

"With the government shutdown, there will likely be no distribution of EBT funds in November here in Arkansas. For this reason, our local Care Center is expecting an influx of demand in the coming weeks. As such, I'd like to ask for a second collection on the weekend of November 1st & 2nd for the Care Center, which will use the funds raised to purchase foodstuffs for those in need." —Fr. Stephen
