Frs. Stephen and Kiran will be at Clergy Continuing Education in Little Rock from Tuesday afternoon to Thursday morning. Please note the altered weekday mass schedule.

From Fr. Stephen:

Our mass for All Saints' Mass will be Saturday, November 1st at 9 a.m. It is not a holy day of obligation in 2025. Many of you may remember in September 2024 when the Holy See's Dicastery for Divine Worship responded to a 'dubia' [a doubt] from several US bishops about holy days of obligation that fall on Saturdays or Mondays; the response gave the impression that even on those days, attending mass is obligatory. This past spring, however, the Holy See clarified that, apart from Christmas, this only applies to a country's patronal feast day, which for us in the U.S. is December 8th. Other holy days that fall on a Saturday or Monday--like November 1st this year--remain solemnities but are not holy days of obligation.

Alumnus and Honorary Alumnus of the Year award nominations are due October 31st. Previous nominations remain on file for consideration. Awards will be presented at Homecoming November 14th . Information and nomination forms available at https://shmorilton.org/Alum_Awards.

The annual Mass for Deceased Members of Knights of Columbus council 5209 in Morrilton will be on Sunday, November 2 at the hall on North Cedar Street at 5:00 p.m., followed by a potluck meal. This will be a regular Sunday Mass and meets the Sunday obligation. All are welcome to celebrate Mass and enjoy the food and fellowship following.

Special 2nd collection on Nov 1st/2nd for food assistance

"With the government shutdown, there will likely be no distribution of EBT funds in November here in Arkansas. For this reason, local food pantries are expecting an influx of demand in the coming weeks. As such, I'd like to ask for a second collection on the weekend of November 1st & 2nd; the funds raised will be given to one or more local food pantries to purchase foodstuffs for those in need." –Fr. Stephen
