From Fr. Stephen:

Our mass for All Saints' Mass will be Saturday, November 1st at 9 a.m. It is not a holy day of obligation in 2025. Many of you may remember in September 2024 when the Holy See's Dicastery for Divine Worship responded to a 'dubia' [a doubt] from several US bishops about holy days of obligation that fall on Saturdays or Mondays; the response gave the impression that even on those days, attending mass is obligatory. This past spring, however, the Holy See clarified that, apart from Christmas, this only applies to a country's patronal feast day, which for us in the U.S. is December 8th. Other holy days that fall on a Saturday or Monday—like November 1st this year—remain solemnities but are not holy days of obligation.

THANK YOU to all who supported Oktoberfest! Proceeds help support improvements at Sacred Heart School and your generosity is greatly appreciated!

Thank You!!
😊

The Bethlehem Holy Land Group

will be at Sacred Heart on October 25th and 26th to offer their hand-crafted, olive wood religious images, as the Gazan war of these last two years has made the flow of pilgrims to Bethlehem come to a complete halt. Their work helps support the Christians of Bethlehem to remain in the Holy Land."
